THOMPSON STREET CAPITAL PARTNERS INVESTS IN H2O CLINICAL

ST. LOUIS (January 26, 2016) – Thompson Street Capital Partners (TSCP), a private equity firm based in St. Louis, announced today that it has invested in H2O Clinical, a Contract Research Organization (CRO). H2O Clinical provides highly specialized clinical data management and statistical services and represents the first investment of TSCP’s clinical research data platform. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Said Jim Cooper, Managing Partner, TSCP, “We are excited to begin building our clinical research data platform together with our Executive Partner, Steve Sullivan, and this company’s talented management team. The company has earned a leading reputation in the CRO industry for its capabilities in clinical data management, statistical programming, and biostatistics services. We are eager to build upon the team’s already-significant success as we support this company’s accelerated growth.”
