THOMPSON STREET CAPITAL PARTNERS INVESTS IN TROPICHEM RESEARCH LABS, LLC

ST. LOUIS (November 24, 2015) – Thompson Street Capital Partners (TSCP) has partnered with management to make an investment in Tropichem Research Labs, LLC. The Jupiter, Florida-based Tropichem (www.tropichem.com) is a premier producer of dermatological products and other specialty chemical formulations. Tropichem was advised by BellMark Partners, LLC on the transaction. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Tropichem Research Labs, LLC, assists its customers in bringing products from concept to consumer by utilizing the latest technologies in equipment and ingredients. FDA registered and Current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP) compliant, Tropichem primarily manufactures medicated shampoos, ear cleaners, wipes, and dental products for global animal health brands. In addition to its existing chemical product portfolio, Tropichem’s full-time, on-site chemists continuously develop new formulations specifically for its customers. The Company provides hot pour filling, lab testing, in-line machinery, batching and quality control.

According to Jim Cooper, Managing Partner, TSCP, “We’re delighted to be partnering with the management of Tropichem. The Company enjoys a well-deserved position as a regional leader in the manufacturing of private-labeled products. They’re known for their commitment to superior results, starting at the formulation stage and extending all the way through to full-scale manufacturing and marketing.” Added Mr. Cooper, “We look forward to being there to help facilitate the growth of this business.”
